Project Title: Narkanda

I would like to build this site across multiple images, rather than a long single paged site. I would have top navigation, as this is the most intuitive. There is plenty of photography of not only the geography of the region, but also the people who live there.

- General Information

- Country
- District
- Elevation
- Population
- Languages
- Time Zone

- Geography

- Climate

- Flora

- Conifer
- Oak
- Maple
- Poplar
- Aesculus
- Hazelnut
- Holly

- Demographics

- Sources / External Links

- This page will list all the sources that I used (including the Wiki Page, as well as photography sources, and any other credits)
